Description

Large Country House in Muro de Alcoy – Alicante – Ideal for a Large Family or as a Seminar Venue

At the foot of the Benicadell mountain range, at an altitude of around 420 metres with sweeping views over the green mountain landscape of Alicante province, lies this spacious country house built in 1988. Set on a plot of approximately 4,000 m² with around 333 m² of living space, the property offers plenty of room with a total of 8 bedrooms — perfect for a large family, several generations under one roof, or for seminars and group stays.

A separate apartment with its own entrance, two bedrooms and its own bathroom can be locked off when needed, making it an ideal self-contained retreat for guests. The remaining bedrooms are furnished with high-quality box-spring beds, while the master bedroom additionally features a walk-in wardrobe, an en-suite shower room and an electrically adjustable bed; one of the rooms stands out with its Moroccan-inspired design.

The heart of the house is the light-filled, combined dining and living area with fireplace, a cosy lounge corner and direct access to the fully covered terrace. The solid oak table seating six and the two-zone wine fridge with capacity for around 120 bottles set the scene for convivial evenings, while the fully equipped kitchen — with Stargalaxy worktops, an 8-burner gas stove and a Thermomix — leaves nothing to be desired.

Outside awaits a Mediterranean retreat: a roughly 50 m² pool with pergola and sun loungers, a generous southwest-facing terrace seating eight, and a well-tended garden with automatic irrigation. The lush orchard, with olive, citrus, fig, pomegranate and walnut trees, provides a plentiful harvest throughout the year. A summer kitchen, workshop, carport and several parking spaces complete the fully fenced and secluded plot.

Thanks to smart-home controls, a modern gas central heating system, several air-conditioning units and fast internet, the house is equally suited to permanent living and to working from home. The motorway is just 5 minutes away, the town with all its shops 6 minutes, Alicante airport around 45 minutes — and the Sierra Mariola Natural Park is practically on the doorstep.
